

WELL QUALIFIED FOR OFFICE HE IS SEEKING

Roy H. Curran, candidate for the office of County Clerk, was born in Redwood City in 1883.

He attended the public schools of Redwood City and graduated from the Sequoia Union High School in 1903. He also attended the Sacred Heart College in San Francisco. His father, the late James Curran was one of the pioneer farmers of San Mateo county. In 1906, he married Miss Juanita Underhill of San Mateo and went to Seattle where he was employed in the Abstract business for four years. In 1910 he returned to Redwood City and assumed the management of the J. F. Johnston Abstract Company, which position he held until Mr. Johnston sold his business, in February, 1917. Since then, and up to the time of his entering the campaign for County Clerk, he was the Assistant Manager of the California Pacific Title Insurance Company at Redwood City.

His occupation in the Title business has kept him in close touch with the business of most of the County offices, particularly that of County Clerk. This business experience well fits him for the duties of the office to which he aspires. He promises, if elected, to give the County an economical and business-like administration. He promises strict attention to the duties of the office. A great many of his friends in different parts of the county used their influence to induce Mr. Curran to seek the office of County Clerk. He is receiving support from every section of the county, much of the support coming from people whom he least expected. All his school day friends are staunch for Roy Curran. This is no doubt the best recommendation for him, coming as it does from those who have known him since childhood and have grown up with him to manhood. People who have met him in a business way are also openly supporting him.

Mr. Curran has never sought a public office before and is not allied with any political influence whatever and is seeking the office with a clean political record, soliciting the public support entirely upon merit. We bespeak for him, a clean, upright young man, fully qualified to fulfill the duties of the office of County Clerk.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION REORGANIZE FOR NEXT YEAR

Pursuant to law the county board of education met on July first and re-organized by electing W. J. Savage of Colma president of the board for the ensuing term. He succeeds George W. Hall of San Mateo who held the position for the past year. The new board transacted considerable business and granted several teachers' certificates on credentials. Helen Wilkins Myers of Redwood City and Mark G. Woods of Pescadero were granted life certificates.

LIEUTENANT HALL NOW READY FOR "OVER THERE"

Lieut. G. W. Hall, formerly a Menlo Park boy, has successfully stood the tests of the Officers' College at Fort Monroe, Virginia. He will devote a short furlough to a tour of the Northwest, after which he will report to his regiment at the Presidio to make ready for service in France. A superior officer has said of him, "Lieut. Hall is one of the most outspoken and soldierly young officers in the service."

Henry S. Chapin was a visitor here on the Fourth and passed the day at his home recently purchased on Roosevelt avenue.

MAKING CAMPAIGN ON HIS EFFICIENT RECORD

Judge Seely has begun a vigorous campaign for re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace of the Third Township, which office he has so creditably filled for the past four years. The many friends of the incumbent feel confident that he will be returned to office by a large vote. Four years ago Judge Seely was elected over two opponents at the primary election and during his incumbency in office he has made a record of which he may well feel proud. Serious and perplexing criminal and civil suits have come under his jurisdiction, and his even judicial temperament has been evidenced by his equanimity and fairness of his decisions. He has handled thousands of cases, and in each of them he has carried out his motto "a square deal", the rich and poor come into his Court on an even standing. His court is known as the people's haven on advice and legal matters, and the jurist's advice given freely and pleasantly, is what makes him one of the most respected men in our community. Judge Seely may well run for re-election on his record, as he has been at the people's service twenty-four hours of the day, and it is predicted by his many followers and friends that he will be returned to office on August 27th, with a vote over all of his opponents.

JOHN J. SHIELDS SEEKING RE-ELECTION FOR AUDITOR

John J. Shields, the popular auditor, is making an active canvass for re-election. He has held the office for one term and during that time has demonstrated his ability and efficiency to conduct the affairs of that department of the county government in a way that entitles him to re-election. Mr. Shields has established a splendid system of book-keeping in the office which brings it up to the standard and makes it one of the most efficient auditor's offices in the state. Mr. Shields is a courteous and painstaking official, giving his personal attention to every detail. In his work he is ably assisted by his chief deputy Edward Stack, an accountant of ability.

REPORT OF SESSION OF COUNTY SOLONS

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, July 1, at 10 a. m., there being present Dr. C. V. Thompson, presiding, T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, John MacBain and Jos. M. Francis.

A communication was received from A. C. G. Hahn, chairman of the Menlo Park Fire Commission, informing the board that the amount of money required for the maintenance of the above district during the coming fiscal year would be $7,500 and asking that that sum be provided for in the tax budget. The communication was ordered filed.

An application was received from W. D. Renner for a dance permit at Rockaway Beach and the hearing in the same was set for Monday, July 15th.

Maurice Kottler of Redwood City was granted a renewal of his peddlers license in the county, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey.

The request of Henry Sydelman that he be permitted to withdraw his application for a peddlers license, filed at a previous meeting of the board, was granted, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown, and the $10 deposit money furnished by him, ordered returned.

Building permits were granted J. W. Dobbins and Harry B. Morey of Menlo Park, they having complied with the county ordinance and paid the necessary fee.

A communication was read from the County Social Service Commission notifying the board that the three months' probation period of Miss Lillian Haley, as executive secretary of the commission had been terminated, and recommending that her services be continued, the communication stating that she had given excellent and satisfactory service. The board decided to take the matter up later in the day.

A communication received from Captain J. D. Cleary of the War Department, Headquarters Western Division, asking the board to furnish a map of the county, was ordered referred to Engineer Neuman, who is now preparing a map, and compiling data of the county.

The bid of Burroughs and Sons of Oakland for boring a well on the property of the county hospital, heretofore submitted, was ordered rejected, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, the board having already decided to readvertise for bids for this work.

This being the time set for hearing the petition of Thomas Hind of Redwood for a permit to keep more than fifty hogs on the outskirts of that city, the clerk read a resolution adopted by the town trustees of Redwood, protesting against the granting of said permit and asking the supervisors not to grant any permits for hog ranches where such would in any way be offensive or obnoxious to the people of that municipality.

District Attorney Swart, who was present at the meeting, stated that Mr. Hind had asked that he be allowed to withdraw his application for the permit. The request was granted on motion of Brown, seconded by Hickey.

In connection with the above, the district attorney informed the board that the persons who had been operating the ranch for which the permit was desired and who had been arrested some ten days ago for keeping more than fifty hogs and also on account of the unsanitary condition of the place, were getting out just as fast as they could. Within a few days, he said, there would be no hogs on the ranch, but that the people living in the vicinity of the place would probably suffer a little discomfort for a month or so on account of the large quantity of offal that had been thrown in the creek by the operators of the ranch.

City Attorney Albert Mansfield of the Town of Redwood City appeared before the board in the matter of the hearing of the petition for the annexation of certain uninhabited territory to the Town of Redwood City wanted in connection with the location of the plant of the San Francisco Shipbuilding Company on the lands of the Redwood Harbor Company.

Mr. Mansfield, after being sworn, testified that the territory in question was totally uninhabited and was contiguous to the town of Redwood City. There being no objection made or filed to the petition, a resolution prepared and read by Attorney Mansfield, was adopted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, consenting to the annexation of the above territory.

City Attorney Mansfield then took up with the board the question of supplying the Washington school in the Redwood school district with water. He explained that the well that had been furnishing the school water had gone dry and that the town

JITNEY REGULATIONS TO BE LOOKED AFTER

There was a full board at the town trustees meeting last Monday evening and much routine business was transacted. The matter of fully regulating the jitney business in Redwood City was discussed at length. The board is determined to settle this matter finally and will hold a special meeting for that purpose next Monday evening. All interested in the jitney business are requested to be present. The meeting is to be called at 7:30 o'clock. At the suggestion of M. E. Ryan no more permits to jitney men will be granted until the status of the ship yards are established.

On motion of George Kreiss, seconded by M. E. Ryan, the Mynding Estate Company was granted a Class B license for the Redwood City House, which property is owned by the company. This was the extralicense laid over from the last meeting.

George Peterson, Main street jeweler, appeared before the board and asked the members if they would consider the granting of a permit for a jitney dance in the Alhambra hall. Realizing the opposition that might be directed against such a venture, the trustees suggested to Peterson that he take the matter up with the Chamber of Commerce first and ascertain their views and then present a petition from the people showing their desire to have the jitney dances resumed.

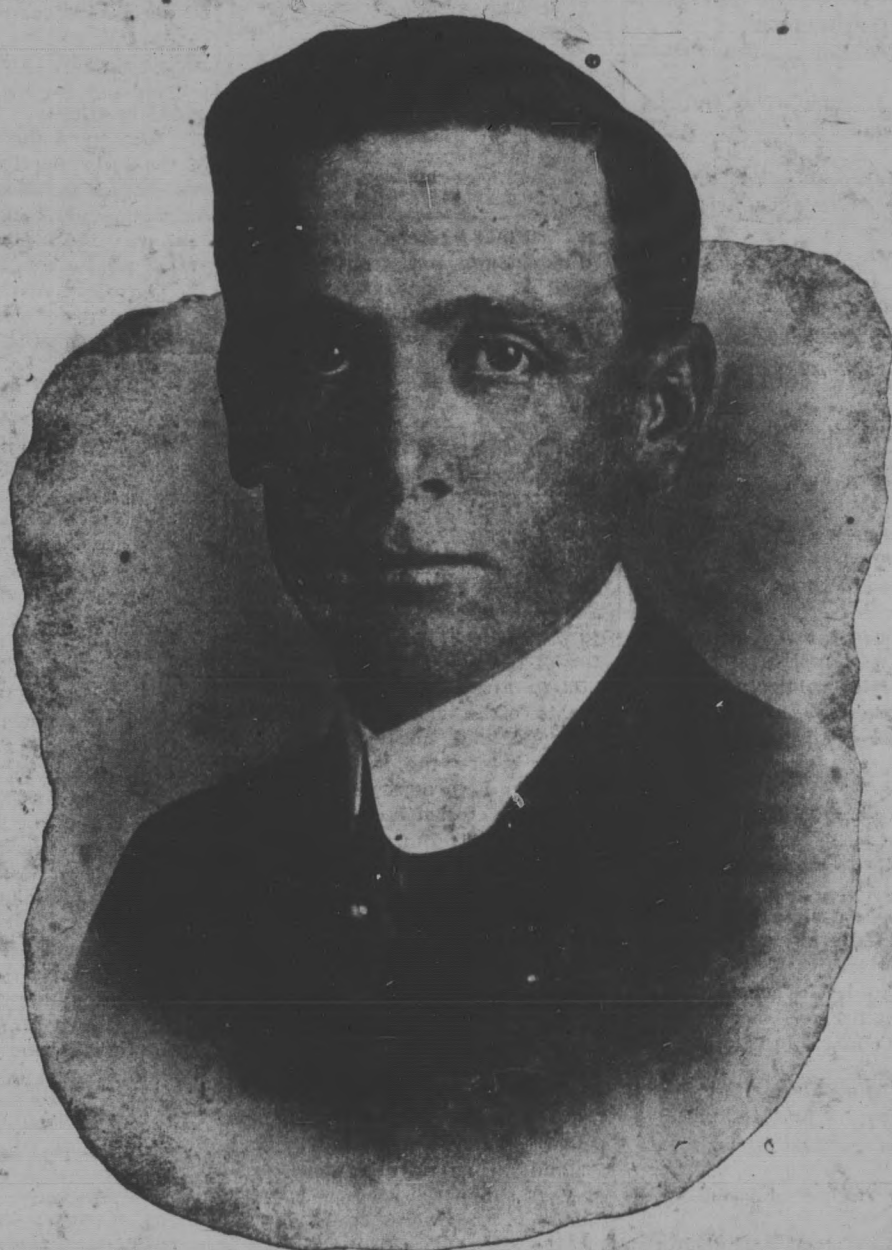

M. Kippler, 103 Cedar street, was granted a renewal of his junk peddler's license.

The P. G. & E. was given permission to erect poles on Eaton street.

Court Madrone, No. 158, following the reading of a communication from M. Chaves, chairman of a committee, was granted a permit to hold a 3 o'clock dance in the Forester's hall on Saturday night, July 20th.

JAMES V. NEUMAN, SAN MATEO COUNTY'S POPULAR SURVEYOR

J. V. Neuman, one of the most competent surveyors in the state, is a candidate for re-election and will receive an overwhelming vote at the primaries next August. When the funds were available from the bond issue for the construction of a good road system for San Mateo county a few years back the board of supervisors placed implicit confidence in Mr. Neuman and gave him almost full charge of the important work. Mr.

Neuman called about him expert assistants and personally watched every detail of road construction. He saw to it that contractors adhered strictly to the terms of their contracts. By his vigilance every road was constructed properly and according to agreement. Not only did Mr. Neuman save the county thousands of dollars but he gave the people one of the best road systems in the state. Mr. Neuman displayed wonderful ability in handling the big work and has attracted the attention of road builders throughout the state. Mr. Neuman has been made flattering offers for his services as a road builder from other counties but he has refused to leave San Mateo county, preferring to continue his good work here where he was born and raised. Mr. Neuman is a graduate of the local high school and Stanford University. He will be elected by a pronounced vote. A man of his honesty, ability, and efficiency should be.

AGRICULTURE AS TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS NOW, NOT A FAD

Agriculture as taught in grammar schools these days is too frequently a parade fad; but not so in the Halfway where sixteen industrious boys tenaciously cling throughout every garden trial until a harvest was gathered amounting to two hundred fifty pounds of fine potatoes, besides some meals of smaller vegetables. This success will prompt Principal H. C. Hall to take up the work on a larger scale next year, probably to the rental of a piece of contiguous land to be worked out by a school agricultural club. While the boys were winning laurels as tillers of the soil, an unusually large class of girls were assiduously applying themselves to the "three R's" for graduation at the hands of the County Board of Education, resulting in the winning of diplomas by the following: Clara George, Ellnor Cunha, Mary Bernardo, Carrie Cunha, Helen Martin, Ethel Rue, Agnes Miguel, Glyads Swint, Marian Quinlan, Helen Burke. School closed last week until early in August, releasing Principal Hall for a vacation war work as a more peremptory duty than summer school work to which he had applied himself the two past summer vacations.

MISS LILY GOULD UNITED IN MARRIAGE TO BRYAN F. BROWN

Miss Lily Gould daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gould of Redwood City, was united in marriage in San Francisco on July 3rd to Bryan F. Brown. The young couple are spending their honeymoon in the south. Mr. Brown is a member of Company E, Eighth Infantry, Camp Fremont. The popular and pretty young bride is the chief copyist in the county recorder's office. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside in Redwood City.

Carl Klevesahl of Mayfield was a visitor to Redwood City Friday.

Mrs. D. J. Geary leaves for Seattle today for a sojourn of two months with relatives. Mrs. Geary spent her girlhood in the north.

Frank F. Rizzo, the popular cashier of the Bank of Italy, will leave on his vacation today. He will spend two weeks in Shasta.

Mrs. Carolan at a recent patriotic meeting at Burlingame recited the following prayer before a large audience. The sentiment was at once caught by her hearers and it sank deep into their hearts. It is now being recited at all patriotic gatherings:

THE PRAYER

(The real experience of a French gunner).
By Amelia J. Burr—The Outlook, November 21, 1917.

You say there's only evil in this war,
That bullets drive out Christ? If you had been In Furnes with me that night, what would say, I wonder?

It was ruin past all words,
Horror where joyous comfort used to be,
And not clean quiet death, for all day long

The great shells tore the little that remained
Like vultures on a body that still breathes.

They stopped as it grew dark, I looked about
The ghastly wilderness that once had been
The village street, and saw no other life

Except a Belgian soldier, shadowy Among the shadows, and a little group
Of children creeping from a cellar school

And hurrying home. One older than the rest—
So little older!—mothered them along

Till all at once a stray belated shell
Whined suddenly out of the gloom, and burst Near by. The babies wined and clung together.

Helpless with fear. In vain the little mother Encouraged them—"But no! you mustn't cry,
That isn't brave, that isn't French!"

At last
She led her frightened brood across the way
To where there stood a roadside Calvary

Bearing its sad, indomitable Christ—
Strange how the shells will spare just that! I saw
So many... There they knelt, poor innocents, Hands folded and eyes closed. I stole across

And stood behind them. "We must say our prayer—
"Our Father, which art in heaven," she began.

And all the little sobbing voices piped,
"Hallowed be Thy Name." From down the road
The Belgian soldier had come near.

I felt Him standing there beside me in the dusk.
"Thy kingdom come—"
"Thy will be done on earth
As it is in heaven." The irony of it Cut me like steel. I barely kept an oath

Behind my teeth. If one could name this earth
In the same breath with heaven—
what is hell?

Only a little child could pray like this.
"Give us this day our daily bread—"
A pause.

There was no answer. She repeated it urgently. Still, the hush. She opened wide Reproachful eyes at them. Their eyes were open

Also, and staring at the shadowy shapes
Of ruin all around them. Now that prayer
Had grown too hard even for little children.

"I know—I know—but we MUST say the prayer," She faltered. "Give us this day our daily bread,
And—and forgive—" she stopped.

Our trespasses
As we forgive them who have trespassed against us."
The children turned amazed, to see who spoke

The words they could not. I too turned to him,
The soldier there beside me—and I looked

Into King Albert's face... I have no words
To tell you what I saw... only I thought

That while a man's breast held a heart like that,
Christ was not—even here—so far away.

REPORT OF SESSION OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

rustees had been called upon to urnish a supply. Permission of the supervisors was asked to drill under the highway on the Woodside road to lay the necessary pipe and also to dig a trench along the said road. It view of the fact that one-half of the children attending the school lived outside of the city limits Attorney Mansfield said he felt justified in completing before the supervisors and asking the help of the county in defraying the cost of installing the pipe line to the building which would be $600.

The board while expressing itself as not desiring to establish any precedent in a matter of this kind felt that the case was an extraordinary and worthy one and voted on motion of MacBain seconded by Hickey, to donate the sum of $300 to the school district to be used for the above purpose, the understanding being that the school district later on, if able,
would reimburse the county.

County Horticultural Inspector N.
A. Peck submitted his report for the month of June, showing that he had potatoes shipped out of the county.

Following the filing of the report,
a petition signed by the Halfmoon Bay Coastside Growers' Association and numerous other associations and concerns, including practically all the cemetery companies in the county, asking the board to reconsider and amend its action of a few months ago, when the working time of Peck was cut down to three days a week. The petitioners claimed that the horticultural commissioner was not able to properly cover the work in the time now allowed.

The board filed the petition and on motion of Hickey, seconded by Mac-Bain, decided to take up the matter at the meeting of July 15th.

County Assessor D. P. Flynn appeared before the board and presented his assessment rolls, showing the assessed valuations of the county for the fiscal year, 1918. The rolls were accepted, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey.

Acting upon the recommendations of the Social Service Commission, as read earlier in the session, the board, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, voted to engage Miss Lillian Haley as the executive secretary of the above commission.

The following bids were opened for purchasing the $20,000 bonds of the Rayenswood School district:

First National Bank of San Mateo County, $51.00 premium.
McDonnell & Co., San Francisco,
$408.00 premium.

F. M. Brown & Co., San Francisco,
$411.00 premium.
Bord & Goodwin, San Francisco,
$484.00 premium.

Blythe, Witter & Co., San Francisco, $540 premium.
Lumberman's Trust Co., San Francisco, $206 premium.

E. H. Rollins & Co., San Francisco,
$416.00 premium.
Cyrus Pierce & Co., San Francisco,
$347.00 premium.

The bid of Blythe, Witter & Co being the lowest and best one submitted a resolution ordering the sale of the bonds to that firm, was adopted, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey.

A resolution proposed by District Attorney Swart at the request of the board and asking the officials of the county to save and turn over to the Red Cross chapters all waste materials that came in their possession, was adopted, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey.

On motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain, the salary of Miss Edna

ATTY. BULLOCK DELIVERES ADDRESS ON AMERICANISM

The address of J. J. Bullock, at the Baptist Church Sunday evening on "Americanism" was listened to by an appreciative audience. The following is a summary of the address: Americanism stands for an exalted and far-reaching idea, an idea dominant in our conglomerate population. It is that which is trying to stem the world-slaughter of today. America has always stood for liberty in its broadest sense. We in America are at liberty to do as we please so long as we do not interfere with the rights and liberties of others. Today we are the only nation that can stop the war. We are trying to re-civilize the world. We are the greatest nation on earth. We have never taken territory but to civilize it, and our flag now floats over all waters. In wealth and power, we stand first; so that the world is looking to us to stop the war. We will do it by the potency of the American idea. Our mission in this conflict is to protect the world from itself.
This is true Americanism. How can we, the people, aid in this work?
Not only by giving our sons and our wealth in the various demands made upon us, but by willingly submitting to all the requirements of the government, without delay and all other restrictions. By speech and actions we are to do all we can to support the President and Congress in all their enactments. This will show that we are true Americans.

Mr. Bullock closed his splendid address by reading a poem that was given by Mrs. Carolyn of Hillsborough at a patriotic meeting held in Burlingame a short time ago, expressing his approval of the sentiment as being in line with what he had tried to say. The thought of the poem is this: A French gunner, one night out on the war-torn fields of Belgium, sees a band of little children making their way across.
A little girl, a bit older than the others was "mothering" them. A bursting shell tears by near them.
The mothering one tries to check their cry of fear. On the edge of the field they come to a statue of Christ standing amid the wreckage.
They kneel before it for prayer—the Lord's prayer, "give us this day our daily bread, and forgive—" they stopped. How could they forgive their cruel enemies? Another soldier form was seen stading near in the darkness. He took up the broken sentence—"our trespassers as we forgive them, who have trespassed against us." It was King Albert of Belgium. The poem ends with these beautiful lines: "While a man's breast holds a heart like that, Christ was not—even here—so far away! We may say that this also is American-ism."

Damage Suit Compromised
The damage suit entitled Anna E.
Nolan against the Peninsula Rapid Transit Company has been settled out of court. Plaintiff was driving a Ford automobile in the vicinity of San Carlos some months ago and was run into by one of the large buses of the company. Plaintiff was thrown out and severely injured. She brought suit to recover damages in the sum of $7,000. It is understood the case has been compromised for $1,200.
John D. Willard, the attorney, who has been so successful in damage suits lately in the county, appeared for the plaintiff and through his efforts the case was settled.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Redwood City as Seen Through Incidents Gathered Here and There

Miss Lily Gould of this city is spending the week-end by the seashore at Santa Cruz.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lanfear in Redwood City on Saturday, June 29, 1918.

Uncle Tom Durham came up from Mountain View Monday and passed a couple of pleasant hours with his nephew Geo. Durham.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM SAN CARLOS

Happenings in Our Northern Neighbor Town Reported by One of Its Residents

Mrs. Guadalupe Delgado and her daughter arrived from Tucson last Thursday and will make their home with another daughter Mrs. Rufina Ayers who is occupying one of the bungalows at the Aviation field.

Our postmaster and chief of police were not troubled with any German alien females and hence no registrations were necessary at San Carlos. The patriotism of our citizens is too pronounced for the sojourn of an alien to be very comfortable with us our gates for very long, as he is sent on his way to seek comfort from the Kaiser.

The Hatfields who have been occupying the Quinn cottage for the past two years have moved to 1526 Edith street, Berkeley, where they will make their home in order to be more convenient to Mr. Hatfield's place of employment. Mrs. Hatfield is an accomplished musician and it is to be regretted that the community was forced to give her up.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. French will take apartments in San Francisco the latter part of next week. Mr. French is an expert airplane machanician and has been employed in the Fowler factory, San Francisco since the San Carlos Aviation Field was closed. The Frenchs lived in one of the Lippman cottages, "Laurel Nook" during their stay here.

Contractor R. P. Hurlbut has commenced the construction of the bungalow for Mrs. C. M. Hemmel at the corner of Cypress and Walnut street and expects to have it completed in six or eight weeks, when Mrs. Hemmel will move from San Francisco and make her home here.

Our pioneer merchant declines to allow us to take one hundred pounds of sugar by filling out four separate cards for 25 pounds each.

M. J. Conway, the popular real estate and insurance agent and former trustee of San Mateo, visited political headquarters last Tuesday and announced his candidacy for supervisor from the Second township. Mr. Conway is a business man of wide experience and one of the very progressive citizens of San Mateo County, and is ambitious to see our county in the vanguard of all progressive movements, particularly the Second township. With his very pleasing personality and his thorough knowledge of conditions and the needs of his bailiwick and how to go about it to secure what is coming to us, Mr. Conway will prove a very worthy opponent of our popular "Bill" Brown who has served us so well in the past, and it is indeed gratifying to have two such worthy citizens seeking one of the important offices in our county, for it matters not who wins, let the Kaiser do his worst, the county is still saved to public decency and the square deal.

FOR SALE—Five lots in W. W. M. subdivision, Redwood City. Will be sold cheap on terms. Apply to Ed. Temperli, 31 Blake street, El Cerrito, Contra Costa county. P. O. address, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 171, Berkeley, Cal. 36-11.

Clark, assistant purchasing agent, was increased from $75 to $100 a month.

Supervisor MacBain stated that since he had been authorized to construct a small building in Menlo Park at the corner of the State highway and Santa Cruz avenue for headquarters for the county's police officers, he had received an offer to rent a suitable structure on the premises for a year at the rate of $15 a month. On his motion, seconded by Brown, he was given permission to rent on the above terms.

When the application of the Andrus Taxi Co., of Palo Alto to operate its busses from that city to Camp Fremont, over the highways of San Mateo county came up for hearing, the owner J. R. Andrus, was represented by Attorney E. D. Lakin.

In reply to a question of Supervisor Hickey regarding an alleged charge demanded by the Andrus Co., of taxi drivers for permits to run into the camp, the owner stoutly denied that such condition existed. He said that for the first few days he had been given the exclusive right to enter the camp, several persons had volunteered to pay him for a taxi privilege but that a ruling of the Railroad Commission changed this, so that it became necessary for the company to pay the owners of cars for running their cars. Andrus claimed that at the present time he had twenty-eight cars of his own in the service to the camp and in addition had three other machines hired for which he was paying $10 a day.

Attorney Lakin made a strong appeal to the board to grant Andrus a permit, claiming that the exclusive right to operate into the camp had been forced upon him by the government and that he had at all times been anxious to play fair with San Mateo county.

After further discussion, the permit was granted, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, subject to the approval of Andrus' bond, Supervisor Brown voting "no" on the motion with the explanation that he did not like the policy of the Palo Alto taxi company.

Supervisor MacBain addressed the board and reported that Camp Fremont had recently withdrawn its men who were assisting in traffic duty at the corner of Santa Cruz avenue and the State highway in Menlo Park, and that this work had fallen altogether upon the two officers employed by the county at that place. To cover the extra time put in by these men, the board, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, voted to allow them $150 a month, the increase in their salaries to date from June 1, 1918.

A claim of Mrs. Schafer, amounting to $85, being for services in connection with her duties as woman probation officer, was allowed, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown.

The board reconvened as a board of equalization and as such accepted the assessment rolls, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey.

It was ordered, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, that the usual three days' notice be given before lowering or raising the assessments, and on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, the clerk was directed to give notice by publication that applications for equalization of assessments will be received up to July 15, 1918.
